

Square Lantern – blending traditional luminaire forms with modern lighting function

Square Lantern LED Pendant Comfort (S26P-C)

Creating a warm and friendly ambience with its design while offering high-end technology. The LED Square Lantern draws on the designs of yesteryear in order to evoke a feeling of harmony and warmth in any project. This luminaire is another example of how Lumec melds feelings of old-time luminaires with modern lighting techniques and LED technology. This blend of form and function makes the Square Lantern luminaire an excellent choice for any environment. Now available with our comfort optics, providing a low glare, comfortable solution for pedestrian scale applications.

Benefits

- Comfort optics provide a low glare solution to improve visual comfort
- Maintains excellent performance in the most demanding of environments
- Suitable for a large range of lighting applications
- Compliments any project, traditional or modern
- Assures long life, reliability and durability

Features

- Comfort optics reduce glare
- Constructed from top quality materials
- Complete selection of materials and finishes
- Offers a variety of optical distributions and lumen packages

Square Lantern LED Pendant Comfort (S26P-C)

Application

- Road and Street
- Parks and Plazas
- Walkways

Versions

